Seminar on how the European Union can help to improve territorial accessibility

16 April 2015, Marseille (France)

PRACTICAL INFORMATION SENT TO PARTICIPANTS

HOW TO GET TO MARSEILLE? TRAVEL/TRANSFERS

Marseille Airport is very well served from Mediterranean destinations and also well connected to the city center. Consequently the Region of Provence-Alpes-Côte d'Azur won't be organising transfers from/to the Airport.

No transfer will be organised either between hotels and the venue of the meeting. The distance between hotels and the venue of the meeting is 20 minutes on foot maximum

Through the following link, you can get all the detail on how to get the Villa Méditerranée...

- Detail to get from/to the airport by bus or by train www.marseille-airport.com (accessibility) – For “Arrival city”, select “Marseille (Saint Charles) - Metro 1 et 2 (13)”
- To get from/to train station to city center: Metro Line 1 – Direction “La Fourragère” – Get off at “Vieux port” (A lot of hotels are in this area).

At the final destination, take a walk along the seaside (on your left) to go to the meeting venue.

Please consult a Map of the city center and map of metro, bus, tram... - Any other information, on the website www.rtm.fr (City Pass - Welcome to Marseille)

MEETING VENUE

The seminar will be held in Villa Méditerranée.

Villa Méditerranée
Esplanade du J4 – 13002 Marseille

VISIT OF THE PORT OF MARSEILLE – Compulsory registration

The Region is organising a visit of the Port of Marseille that will take place on 17 April (from 8.30 to 12.30). The number of places being limited, registrations are compulsory: Registration

HOTELS

You will find hereafter a list of hotels based in the city centre of Marseille, near to the venue of the meeting. Delegates are invited to book their accommodation directly with the hotel of their choice.
